

The state of Indiana should be in one Time Zone. Time should be consistent throughout the state at all times of the year. Indiana should be in the Eastern Time Zone and the "Daylight Saving Time" shift should be discontinued. Businesses and neighboring states and correspondents would quickly learn and appreciate the uniformity. Thx